
CLYDE LIMPTON'S JOB

CHURCH OF THE OPEN DOOR MISSION (attached) is just funny.
Send it to a qualified "special friend."

Rev. Elton Leroy Jones, Pastor

Dear

Perhaps you have heard of me and my nationwide campaign in the cause of temperance.

Each year for the past fourteen, I have made a tour of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Mississippi, delivering a series of lectures on the evils of drinking. On this tour I have been accompanied by my friend and assistant, Clyde Limpton. Clyde, a young man of good family and excellent background, is a pathetic example of a life ruined by excessive indulgence in whisky and women.

Clyde would appear with me at lectures and sit on the platform drunk, wheezing, staring at the audience through bleary, bloodshot eyes, sweating profusely, picking his nose, scratching his testicles, passing gas and making obscene gestures while I pointed this out as an example of what overindulgence can do to a person.

This spring, unfortunately, Clyde passed away. A mutual friend has given me your name, and I wonder if you would be available to take Clyde's place on this year's tour?

Yours in faith,

Reverend Elton Leroy Jones
